II. ANTI-RAGGING POLICY

Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited within the premises of the Institute as it is a criminal offense. The Institute is firm on ensuring that this policy on prohibition, prevention, and elimination of ragging is strictly followed within or outside campus, including the Hostel.

Any instance of ragging would attract severe punishment of cancellation of admission, suspension, rustication, or expulsion from the Institute /Hostel.

Apart from the Institute level punishment, there will be strong police and legal action. Ragging is a cognizable offense under the law of the land, and the Supreme Court of India has ruled that the punishment to be meted out has to be exemplary and harsh to act as a deterrent. According to relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (IPC), those found guilty of a ragging-related offense can be punished with imprisonment fine or both. The quantum of punishment varies with the gravity of the crime.

What is ragging?

Anything that may cause a junior student, physical or mental discomfort due to an act of a senior. More specifically,

- Physical abuse, for example, forcing to eat, drink, or smoke, forcing to dress or undress.
- Verbal abuse, for example, swear words and phrases, direct or indirect derogatory references to the person's appearance, attire, religion, caste, family, or chosen field of study.
- Forced activity, for example:
 - Chores for seniors, e.g., copying notes, cleaning rooms, etc.
 - Attending extra-curricular events to cheer for hostel teams.
 - Missing classes; not allowed to study.
 - Staying awake late or getting up at unreasonable times.
 - Singing or dancing or performing in any other way.
 - Using foul language or shouting or cheering loudly.
 - Misbehaving with strangers, particularly women.
 - Reading or browsing pornographic/objectable material
 - Lifestyle restrictions, for example
 - Not allowing certain kinds of clothing or accessories, e.g. jeans, belts, etc.
 - Enforcing rules regarding shaving or oiling hair; forcing certain kinds of dresses.
 - Restricting access to parts of the hostel, e.g., common room.
 - Requiring certain modes of address, e.g., seniors should be called Sir or Ma'am.
 - Requiring a particular waking time.
- Conversational mind-games: Particular forms of interaction in which a senior or set of seniors manipulates the conversation to humiliate the junior student or make him/her feel stupid or insecure or generally threatened.

Any interaction between juniors and seniors where the seniors are friendly, welcoming and non-aggressive is encouraged. Seniors are requested to maintain self-imposed discipline and restraint. In particular, they should be careful about:

- Any "interaction" outside public areas.
- Visiting junior's rooms, or inviting juniors to their rooms.
- Forcing juniors to sing, dance, or perform in any way under the guise of "talent search" or "interaction".

The Supreme Court of India has observed that enrolment in academic pursuits or a campus life should not immunize any adult citizen from the penal provisions of the laws of the land. According to the directions of the Supreme Court, if any instance of ragging is brought to the notice of the administration or the faculty, it is legally binding on us to report the matter to the local police.

Please contact members of the Anti-ragging committee to report any instance of ragging.
